Overview

Brian Suitor is a Research and Operations Analyst at Choate Investment Advisors. Brian works closely with the investment team to provide quantitative research and operational support to improve Choate's investment process.

Brian joined Choate after receiving a BSBA from the Boston University Questrom School of Business, where he concentrated in Operations and Technology. While at Boston University, Brian earned his Six-Sigma Greenbelt Certification and competed for their Division I Wrestling program. During the summer, Brian interned with Rain Bird, working closely with the management team on a companywide Lean Management Project, improving operational efficiency and workplace safety.

Prior to joining Choate Investment Advisors, Brian worked at State Street as a financial operations specialist. At State Street, Brian was responsible for maintaining client holdings and account reconciliations, with a focus on derivative investments as a part of their Alternative Investment Solutions group.
