Overview

Harrison Odaniell is the Director of Portfolio Analytics & Trading at Choate Investment Advisors. Harrison conducts quantitative research to improve Choate's investment process. Additionally, he works closely with the Portfolio Managers to provide personalized investment solutions to Choate's clients.

Harrison joined Choate Investment Advisors after earning a BS in Mathematics and Quantitative Economics from Tufts University, where he focused his studies on mathematical modeling. While at Tufts, he helped found the 180 Degrees Consulting Branch of Tufts University, an international student-run consultancy providing services to charities and nonprofit organizations. During the summers, Harrison attended the Business Bridge Program at the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth and interned twice with Choate Investment Advisors.
