Katherine Toth

PHILANTHROPIC ADVISOR

617-248-4877 ktoth@choate.com

Overview

Katherine Toth partners with individuals, families, and private foundations to design and advance thoughtful, high-impact philanthropy. She advises clients at every stage of their giving—whether launching a new vehicle or refining and evolving an established approach—she helps define clear goals and translate them into effective strategies.

Kate leads mission and vision development, shapes grantmaking frameworks, and conducts due diligence to identify high-quality funding opportunities, while building operating budgets that support disciplined, mission-aligned giving. Kate also helps steward implementation, overseeing grantmaking and monitoring progress to ensure strategies remain responsive and impactful over time.

A trusted advisor, Kate supports families and foundation leaders in navigating governance, engaging multiple generations, and aligning philanthropy with broader legacy and wealth planning.
